ROOM 8 - LABELLING PARTS OF A PLANT

A Recipe for Summer

Collect a handful of sun.
Mix with pieces of ice cream.
Stir in a generous amount of water.
Add long sunny days and endless hot nights.
Mix in a pair of flip flops and stir vigorously.
Splash a dash of cold icy milk shakes.
Tip in a bucket of sunblock, don't get sunburnt.
Combine together with sunglasses and scorching days.
Pour in a generous amount of sunshine, mix until saturated Bring to cook over Spring, chill out in Winter and allow it to cool in Autumn. Remove from the heater.
And swim!

By Harleen Kaur, Year 7, Room 5.

A Recipe for Autumn

Collect some crunchy autumn leaves.
Mix rapidly with light showers.
Stir in a generous amount of wind.
Add cooler days and short windy nights.
Mix in a warm puffer jacket and stir vigorously.
Splash in a dash of fog and a sprinkling of clouds.
Tip in a bucket of red and orange leaves from the backyard and combine carefully.
Gently mix in beanies and rain jackets, to protect you from deathly winds.
Combine together with some warm woolen socks
and oversized oodies.
Pour in a generous amount of thunder and lightning until the mixture is saturated and beat thoroughly.
Bring to the boil over winter.
Gently simmer over spring.
Allow to cool over summer.
Remove from the shed and shiver.

5.

A Recipe For Spring

Start off with adding a pinch of blooming flowers of every shade. Sprinkle in a generous amount of rain and a touch of sun.

Mix in some leaves, petals and flower buds.
Gently combine the ingredients together to get fully grown trees ready for Summer.

Grab a separate bowl, fill with new life and mix in freshly grown fruit n' vege.

Pour warmer, longer days into the separate bowl.
Stir vigorously while dropping in fresh berries in both bowls.

Boil over Summer, add a touch of Autumn's wind, cool over Winter and bloom!

By Amelia Jones, Year 8, Room 5.
