Retirement

Our Deputy Principal, Mrs Gay Pert, has retired from the beginning of this term ending a wonderful career at our school. Mrs Pert has been a loyal servant of our school for 33 years.

Mrs Pert joined our Staff in 1992-3. She has taught New Entrants-Junior 3/Year 3 over the years. She was appointed Deputy Principal of the Junior classes in 2015, a position she has held to the present day.

Over the years Mrs Pert completed a Bachelor of Teaching and a Postgraduate Diploma of Literacy - Reading and Writing. She provided exemplary professional leadership and supported many young teachers developing as effective professionals.

The Board of Trustees thank Mrs Pert for her dedication and loyalty to our school. We all wish her well for her retirement.

Fortunately Mrs Pert has agreed to support us when we need a relieving teacher.
