Resilience Hiranga

Virtue - Resilience : Hiranga

The term resilience features often in our conversations around achievement. A related term might be tenacious. Resilience is about adapting well in the face of difficulty, tragedy and trauma. Being resilient is about bouncing back! Resilience is nurtured in having caring and supportive relationships. Someone around to reach out and support. Having friends is a great help. In our classrooms we will focus on this virtue over the next few weeks. We all have resilience we just need to practice it.

MORRINSVILLE - ROOM 12 WRITING

Morrinsville

I like Morrinsville because it is a little town and it has one hundred and something dairy cows. You can take photos of the cows. The cows have pictures on the cows.

Morrinsville

Morrinsville is a town in New Zealand near Hamilton. A place to visit in Morrinsville is the bakery for a Hot Chocolate.

The Giant Cow

Morrinsville is important because Morrinsville has lots of cows. There are cows with pictures all over town and by the gas station there is a giant cow. No town has a giant cow ever.
