NO CANTEEN
THIS FRIDAY

Virtue - Pono : Trustworthiness
Trustworthiness is being worthy of trust. People can count on you to do your best, to keep your word and to do what you promised to do.

When a person is trustworthy others can be sure of that person. People do not have to check up on you to see if you are doing something you promised.

Children show they are trustworthy by keeping their word, can be counted upon, are reliable and dependable.

PUFF PUFF

“BANG” the big brown clapper went to start the nine yr old girls race. Halfway along the fence I’m already wasted about to faint. I'm running like beads in a pattern run, walk, run, walk, run, walk it keeps on going on and on.

I start to catch up with Rhylee-Jane. “Oh no, Ruby” a voice yells in my head, I don’t listen to it because it makes me feel anxious about what place I’m gonna come. “Can we just jog or walk?” Rhylee-Janes woozy voice pops out of her mouth as we are sprinting (just kidding we are already jogging) “NO!” I yell “ I don’t want to come last!”

I start to try to sprint along the fence but it does not work. “GO ON RUBY!” Miss Crow yells to me. “RUN RUBY!” Hayley yells and screams her head off. Again I try to sprint to beat Bella and get a stick. “Ruby wait” Rhylee-jane quietly says to me. I hit the yellow flags, my legs are jumping like im pumping. YAY! FINALLY OVER AND DONE WITH.

(I didn’t get a stick but oh well)

As I’m walking back to my waka (Tainui) I keep a look out for Rhylee-Jane and see how she is coping with all the running. My heart is pumping like I’m jumping up and down. I can see a few people behind me trying to push themselves. My lungs are hurting and are weak. I’m lucky I didn’t faint while running. I sit down and start to eat my lunch “YUM”

THE GREAT RACE

Heavily breathing. I jog to the starting line. 3, 2, 1 already, CLAP! Everybody takes off in a rush, people yelling out “GO, GO!” I start slowing down more people yelling out DON’T GIVE UP NOW, I try to sprint up to everybody that's in front I randomly come in 3rd place “ Two more people, let’s see if I can catch up”

I’m on my second lap my legs feel like jelly I’m majorly puffing. I want to stop but I can’t because I’m on the 2nd to last lap. “Never give up no matter what you do”. My bones were clicking like cracking crackers.

I could see cameras that were flashing like lightning, hard grass like concrete, my whole body feels like fresh wobbly jelly. My calf muscles felt like they were getting smashed by a rock . The wind , trying to push me over the finish line.

By Corey Sherwood, Year 5, Room 3.
